PARISH COUNCIL VACANCIES

Due to the uncontested election for Cowling Parish Councillors, 4 seats are available for eligible members of the public to apply to become a Parish Councillor. The council would like to fill these positions by co-option.

If you're proactive, interested in helping your community and willing to give some time we would be delighted to hear from you. Meetings are normally once a month in the evenings. Training will be provided.

If you're interested in becoming a parish councillor, or would like to find out more, please contact our Clerk, Linda Whitehead. Contact details are:
